Let the disappointments pass,
Let the laughter fill your glass,
Let your illusions last until they shatter.
Whatever you might hope to find
Amoung the thoughts that crowd your mind
There won’t be many that ever really matter.

— Jackson Browne

The true perfection of man lies not in what man has, but in what man is.

— Oscar Wilde

Fulfill something you are able to fulfill, rather than run after what you will never achieve. Nobody is perfect.

— C. G. Jung
To know and to know that you know, and to not know and to know that you do not know, that is knowledge.
— Confucius

The black stream, catching on a sunken rock, Flung backward on itself in one white wave, And he white water rode the black forever.
— Robert Frost

Science and religion no more contradict each other than light and electricity.
— W. H. Foulkes

The frog far away in the wood, that burns no coal nor wood, perceives more surely the general and universal changes.
— Henry David Thoreau
The past and present wilt — I have fill’d them, emptied them, And proceed to fill my next fold of the future.
— Walt Whitman

i would not want to be bach, mozart, tolstoy, joe hill, gertrude stein or james dean/they are all dead.
Bob Dylan

Though we rush ahead to save our time. We are only what we feel.
— Neil Young
If it was coal it wasn't bad, if it was licorice it was terrible.
— Walt Kelly

Miles from Nowhere, not a soul in sight, But it's alright. I have my freedom, I can make my own rules, the ones that I choose.
— Cat Stevens

DAVID PIKE
We must learn to reawaken and keep ourselves awake, not by mechanical aids, but by an infinite expectation of the dawn, which does not forsake us in our soundest sleep.

— Thoreau

Only those who dare, truly live.
Your devotion to volunteer fire departments is very sane, too, Eliot, for they are, when the alarm goes off, almost the only examples of enthusiastic unselfishness to be seen in the land.

— Kurt Vonnegut, Jr.

It's not how smart you are — it's how smart other people think you are.

— Anonymous

In harbor a ship is safe, but that is not what ships are built for.

— William Shedd

Take it easy.

— The Eagles

NORWOOD CREECH
Reality... What a concept!

Don't walk in front of me — I may not follow.
Don't walk behind me —
I may not lead.
Walk beside me and just be my friend.

— Carus

Direct your eye right inward and you will find yet a thousand regions undiscovered. Travel them and be expert in home cosmography.

— H. D. Thoreau

Why should anyone in this work be afraid.
Since Fate rule us and nothing can be foreseen?
A man should live only for the present day.

— Sophocles

Life's too short to worry.

— M. B. H.

BOBBY HANDMAKER
Take your time... Don't live too fast
Troubles will come and they will pass...
And don't forget, there is someone up above.
Forget your lust for rich man's gold
All that you need is in your soul...
Boy don't worry you'll find yourself.
Follow your heart and nothing else.
And you can do this if you try.
All that I want for you,
Is to be satisfied.

— Ronnie Van Zant
— Gary Rossington

One song leads on to another.
One friend to another friend,
So I'll travel along with a friend and a song.

— Willrid Wilson Gibson

But the trip still feels less dangerous when you've got a friend.
— Carly Simon.
From a certain point onward there is no longer any turning back. That is the point that must be reached.
— Franz Kafka

There was a man upon the stair,
There was a man that wasn't there.
He wasn't there again today,
I wish to God he'd go away.
— Anonymous

Here in my cars where there are new different sounds,
Will you visit me please if I open my door
In cars?
— Gary Numan

Take a chance on me.
— ABBA

Il n'est pas parce que nous sommes individualistes, il est parce-que nous sommes humaines.
— P. W.
Let us all endeavor to live so that when we die, even the undertaker will be sorry.
— Mark Twain

And we all know it's better
Yesterday has past
Now let's all start the living
For the one that's going to last.
— Cat Stevens

I get by with a little help from my friends.
— Lennon/McCartney

GERRY BARKER
Smile and the world smiles with you, Cry and you cry alone.
— Anonymous

Stammering is the native eloquence of us fog people.
— O’Neill

The only truth I can understand or express is, logically defined, a lie.
— Le Guin

FLETCHER CURRY
I have no exquisite reason for 't, but I've reason good enough.
— Wm. Shakespeare

Why eat corn flakes when you could have Welsh rarebit?
— Unknown

Stephen Jones
The most beautiful thing we can experience is the mysterious. It is the source of all true art and science.

— Albert Einstein

I shall be telling this with a sigh
Somewhere ages and ages hence:
Two roads diverged in a wood and I —
I took the one less traveled by.
And that has made all the difference.

— Robert Frost
People! I love people! I had two for breakfast.
— Idi Amin “Big Daddy” Dada

Power is never ridiculous.
— Napoleon

If a man does not keep pace with his companions, perhaps it is because he hears a different drummer. Let him step to the music which he hears, however measured or far away.
— Thoreau

GARIANN MORGUELAN
If at first you do succeed, you haven’t set your goals high enough.

Youth is a continuous delirium; it is a fever of the brain.

— La Rochefoucauld

You call me a fool
You say it’s a crazy scheme
This one’s for real
I already bought the dream
So useless to ask me why
Throw a kiss and say goodbye
I’ll make it this time
I’m ready to cross that fine line
— Steely Dan

May you always have the freedom to be yourself.
— Unknown
Life is an irreversible process and for that reason its future can never be a repetition of the past.
— Walter Lippmann

Restless man's mind is
So strongly shaken
In the grip of the senses
Truly I think
The wind is no wilder.
— Bhagavad-Gita

SUSAN HERSHBERG
KAREN ABerson

Take as much as you think you ought to Give as much as you can Don’t forget what your failures have taught you,
Or else you’ll learn them all over again.
— Dan Fogelberg

To dream of being someone else is to waste the person you are.
— Unknown

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of man: and his number is Six hundred three score and six.
— Revelations 13:18

AUSTIN NIGHTINGALE
A man who makes no mistakes does not usually make anything.
—— Edward J. Phelps

Dreams are the true interpreters of our inclinations, but art is required to sort and understand them.
—— Montaigne

So the little ones lead, and shouted and laughed and all the hills echoed . . .
—— William Blake
I think I could turn and live with animals, they are so placid and self-contain’d, I stand and look at them long and long. They do not sweat and whine about their conditions, They do not lie awake in the dark and weep for their sins, They do not make me sick discussing their duty to God, Not one is dissatisfied, not one is demented with the mania of owning things, Not one kneels to another, nor to his kind that lived thousands of years ago, Not one is respectable or unhappy over the whole earth.

— Walt Whitman

It is better to remain silent and be though a fool than to speak and remove all doubt.

— A. Lincoln

ROBBIE PENCE
I can't keep it in,
I can't hide it and I can't lock it away.
I'm up for your love,
love heats my blood.
blood spins my head and my head falls in love.
Why must you waste your life away?
You've got to live for today.
Let it go . . .
— Cat Stevens
Yet if you should forget me for a while
And afterwards remember, do not grieve;

Better by far you should forget and smile
Than that you should remember and be sad.

The Class of 1981
Experts from the community have always added a depth to the St. Francis classroom. On this page, Dr. Robert Miller of the U of L English department gives seniors insight into the “Tragedy of Dr. Faustus.” At right, Rev. Charles Tachau, civil rights exponent, relates his involvement with the Louisville Open Housing controversy in the Recent Past course.
